Dear Sir/Madam,

Variation of conditions for Freshwater Point CTS 35855's individual exemption for Freshwater Point

On 5 May 2023, we wrote to advise you of the AER's intention to vary Freshwater Point CTS 35855's individual exemption, to include 2 new conditions relating to payment plans and hardship provisions for residential customers. The new conditions have been designed to increase protections for consumers living in embedded networks.

Pursuant to the delegation given to me by the AER, I have decided under rules 157 and 158 of the National Energy Retail Rules (Retail Rules) to vary the exemption conditions of the individual retail exemption granted to Freshwater Point CTS 35855 on 24 February 2017 as contained in Schedule 1, attached to this letter.

The AER may amend the conditions of any exemptions it has granted. Under the Retail Rules, amending a condition is taken to be changing the exemption itself and there is a process that we must follow. This process includes publishing and consulting on the proposed variation(s) for a minimum of 20 business days, considering any submissions made, and making (and publishing) a formal decision. We can confirm that no submissions were received during the public consultation period.

Variation of exemption conditions

The AER has decided to vary the exemption conditions due to revised conditions introduced in an updated version of the Retail Exempt Selling Guideline \(version 6\), published in July 2022. The AER considers it appropriate to vary the conditions attached to vary Freshwater Point CTS 35855's individual retail exemption to accord customers the additional consumer protections included in the updated guideline.

Relevantly, the additional conditions included in the variation are as follows:

- Payment Plan – this condition requires exempt sellers to offer flexible energy payment options, including a payment plan, to residential customers who have identified themselves as being in financial difficulty.
- Hardship Policy – this condition requires exempt sellers to have a hardship policy and provide customers a hardcopy or electronic link to the policy. The condition is designed to ensure residential customers in embedded networks who experience payment difficulties due to hardship can have access to adequate support to better manage their energy bills.

What you need to do by 8 March 2024

1. Develop and implement an exempt seller hardship policy, that contains at a minimum, the standardised statements provided in the AER's Exempt Seller hardship policy template, which can be found under 'Key Documents' on our website here.

What happens if my business does not adhere to the varied conditions?

Section 112(2) of the National Energy Retail Law (Retail Law) requires exempt persons to comply with the conditions attached to their individual exemptions. Failing to adhere to these conditions is considered a breach of the Retail Law and may attract civil penalties.

Next steps

We will publish the variation on our website in due course. Please advise us by 30 September 2023 if you have any concerns regarding the variation.

If you have any further queries, or would like to discuss this further, please contact Sarah Pinchuck at AERexemptions@aer.gov.au or 07 3835 4661.

Yours sincerely,

Rowena Park

 - ii) following non-payment by the date specified in the reminder notice, or, in the case of residential customers, the establishment of more flexible payment terms, the exempt person has given the exempt customer a disconnection warning notice informing the exempt customer that disconnection may occur if payment of the outstanding bill is not made by a date at least 6 business days from the date of issue of the warning notice, and
 - iii) the exempt person has, after issuing the disconnection warning notice, used its best endeavours to contact the customer in person or by telephone in connection with the failure to pay, and
 - iv) the exempt customer has, by the date specified in the disconnection warning notice, refused or failed to take any reasonable action towards settling the debt.
