

Notice of Consultation

Consultation Paper – Amendment of the DAA Record Keeping Guideline

This notice informs all interested parties that the Australian Energy Regulator (AER) is conducting a consultation on the amendment of the Day Ahead Auction (DAA) Record Keeping Guideline.

This consultation is being conducted as required under clause 665(4) of the National Gas Rules (NGR) and in accordance with the Standard consultative procedures under clause 8 of the NGR.

Invitation to make submissions

The AER invites interested stakeholders to make written submissions on the consultation paper by 5 PM, 12 May 2023.

Submissions must be lodged via email to AERGasMarketsPipelineCapacityTrading@aer.gov.au with the following email subject: Day Ahead Auction Record Keeping Guideline Consultation.

Submissions received will be made available on the AER website (www.aer.gov.au), subject to a claim of confidentiality.

All enquiries should be addressed to Jeremy Graham at Jeremy.graham@aer.gov.au.

Consultation Process

The consultation process is outlined below. Dates are indicative and subject to change.

We note the consultation process and the dates below are in accordance with the requirements of the Standard consultation procedure under the NGR.

Process stage	Indicative date
Publication of Consultation Paper	13 April 2023
Closing date for submissions in response to the Consultation Paper	12 May 2023
Publication of Draft amendments to the DAA Record Keeping Guideline	Potentially in June 2023
Closing date for submissions in response to the Draft amendments to the DAA Record Keeping Guideline	Potentially in July 2023
Publication of Final amendments to the DAA Record Keeping Guideline	Potentially in August 2023

Background

The matter for consultation is the proposed amendments to the DAA Record Keeping Guideline published on 29 November 2018. The purpose of the proposed changes is to improve the quality of information received in accordance with the Guideline and to aid in compliance with the National Gas Rules (NGR) and the National Gas Law (NGL).

The consultation is the first step in formally seeking stakeholder views on the proposed amendments to the Guideline.

Information received in response to the consultation questions in the consultation paper will inform the amendments to the Guideline and our understanding of stakeholder views regarding the impact of additional requirements we prescribe.