Title, page and paragraph number of document containing the confidential information	Description of the confidential information.	Topic the confidential information relates to (e.g. capex, opex, the rate of return etc.)	Identify the recognised confidentiality category that the confidential information falls within.	Provide a brief explanation of why the confidential information falls into the selected category. If information falls within 'other' please provide further details on why the information should be treated as confidential.	Specify reasons supporting how and why detriment would be caused from disclosing the confidential information.	Provide any reasons supporting why the identified detriment is not outweighed by the public benefit (especially public benefits such as the effect on the long term interests of consumers).
Category Analysis RIN Template Sheet 5.4 MD & utilisation-Spatial Tables 5.4.1	Customer names and load data	RIN data	Market sensitive cost inputs Other	The information specified relates to large customers whose name and load could reveal a key input cost of its business (ie electricity). This may provide an unfair advantage to its competitors.	Disclosure could result in undermine our customers commercial position in their own markets.	There is no public benefit in disclosing our large customers' load data.
Category Analysis RIN Template Sheet 4.2 Tables 4.2.2	Metering expenditure and volumes	RIN data	Market sensitive cost inputs	The information provided includes metering expenditure in detailed categories with matching volumes and will allow our unit rates to be determined by competitors.	Disclosure is likely to undermine Power and Water's position in negotiating its future metering requirements, which may result in higher costs for Power and Water's customers.	If released prior to Power and Water renegotiating its existing contractual arrangements, Power and Water, and its customers, may pay more for metering services.
