

Summary of key points from telephone conversation with staff from Public Interest Advocacy Centre (PIAC) on 30 November 2016

- More collaboration and coordination between the energy institutions would help stakeholders provide more considered responses
- Stakeholders would value the opportunity to influence and better understand AER priorities (perhaps through consultation on the AER's Statement of Intent)
- They would encourage more use of infographics to draw out key issues